SUMMARY

Nicholas is struggling to stay in his English major, but is unaware of academic support options or how to improve his performance.

KEY CONCERNS

- Mostly okay-rated assignments in the English major
- Comprehensive course load, including difficult reading assignments
- Feeling overwhelmed, but not sure how to approach assignments
- Uncertainty about academic eligibility for the major

ACTION PLAN

- Refer Nicholas to the academic intervention office for guidance on how to balance coursework and writing effectively
- Suggest meeting with a writing center or tutoring service for English assignments
- Discuss eligibility for academic intervention in the student handbook
- Encourage Nicholas to register for a mentor or academic peer group to ask questions and get feedback

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Schedule a meeting within the next week to review academic progress and intervention options
- Refer Nicholas to a personalized study plan based on his current workload and academic goals
- Encourage Nicholas to seek out advising sessions before final exams to review course selection and future plans
