SUMMARY

Jonathan is struggling with academic pressure in his final year, feeling overwhelmed by his major and elective workload, but is concerned about grades and validating his work.

KEY CONCERNS

- Low academic performance in major and elective courses
- Frustration with grades and fear of losing his strong academic standing
- Feeling overwhelmed and not understanding the material
- Uncertainty about whether he's imparting enough effort

ACTION PLAN

- Repeat with Jonathan's professors to discuss academic expectations and strategies
- Encourage Jonathan to attend tutoring sessions for his major and electives if needed
- Recommend reviewing coursework and assignments to improve focus and grades
- Encourage journaling or practice exercises to bridge the gap between academic work and personal life

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Schedule a check-in later this semester to monitor academic progress
- Encourage Jonathan to write a reflective journal entry after a big assignment or presentation
- Discuss long-term goals and how to balance academic performance with personal growth
