SUMMARY

Mark is experiencing disengagement and uncertainty in his Middle East studies program, which is affecting his academic performance.

KEY CONCERNS

- Academic disengagement, low GPA, mixed upper-division course load
- Decreasing interest in the Middle East content, lack of connection with the material
- Loss of confidence in academic ability
- Need for reassurance about continued learning

ACTION PLAN

- Encourage the student to review course content and engage with more challenging or visually stimulating material
- Suggest meeting with a peer tutor or tougher course coordinator
- Recommend reviewing academic standards and how to approach complex content
- Encourage journaling or visualization exercises to stay engaged with the material

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Schedule a check-in next semester to assess engagement and academic performance
- Request academic referral for a mental health professional who specializes in high-performance college students
- Encourage student to join a student organization or academic club that interests him
- Recommend applying for a writing or research fellowship to stay engaged and show progress
