SUMMARY

Thomas is experiencing first-year challenges related to academic load, social integration, and personal stress.

KEY CONCERNS

- Higher course load than expected, struggling with multiple Romance Languages courses
- Unstructured academic integration, no academic advisor or peer support
- Feeling isolated, lacking confidence in course content
- Experiencing personal stress and uncertainty
- Need for structured academic and social support, academic coaching, and mentorship

ACTION PLAN

- Schedule a meeting to discuss first-year adjustment issues and academic expectations
- Introduce Thomas to first-year academic advising office
- Discuss how to balance multiple courses and workload effectively
- Create a study schedule based on academic goals and personal needs
- Introduce social support through first-year peer groups and academic events

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Review progress by next meeting
- Monitor academic performance, including writing assignments
- Engage in first-year seminar series and peer mentorship
- Attend academic workshops and discussions on campus
- Recommend continued academic coaching, including writing tutoring
