SUMMARY

Katherine is uncertain about her academic path and worries that she may not fit into the social sciences major, even though it was a strong choice for her interests.

KEY CONCERNS

- Uncertainty about career direction and possible academic adjustments
- Worry that the social sciences is not directly related to her interests
- Inability to articulate clear goals or major options
- Lack of familiarity with academic advising and career resources

ACTION PLAN

- Schedule a meeting to discuss potential career paths in social justice, policy, or human rights
- Refer Katherine to the social sciences major advising office for career counseling and academic adjustment
- Recommend attending workshops on writing for social impact, leadership, or policy
- Encourage Katherine to explore non-traditional social sciences majors, such as environmental studies or public health

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- After meeting, follow up with academic adviser to review major options and career pathways
- Revisit major plan with professor in spring semester
- Encourage Katherine to explore internships or service opportunities in her current major and future interests
