SUMMARY

Bobby is uncertain about his academic path after economics and is struggling to improve academically, expressing interest in graduate school but not fully understanding the field.

KEY CONCERNS

- Uncertainty about career prospects in finance/business after college
- Struggling with academic performance in economics
- Inability to articulate what economics is or how to apply it
- Intrigue about graduate school

ACTION PLAN

- Help Bobby identify career paths in finance, business, or public policy that use economics
- Explain graduate school options and how to prepare for research or teaching in economics
- Provide guidance on how to better understand economics through case studies and real-world examples
- Introduce Bobby to economics and finance experts in the community to ask questions

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Check in after campus interviews and resume review
- Offer to connect Bobby with alumni in finance/business who are now in economics or academia
- Recommend attending a graduate economics seminar or offering one-on-one tutoring
