SUMMARY

Stacey is uncertain about her future plans and is grappling with the potential impact of switching majors or pursuing a non-sociology major.

KEY CONCERNS

- Struggling in sociology-related courses, including anthropology and sociology
- Regret concerns about choosing a major in the first place
- Uncertainty about career path and potential transfer out of major
- Lack of academic support in sociology and anthropology departments

ACTION PLAN

- Refer Stacey to campus career center to explore career paths in social justice, human rights, and social inequality
- Suggest attending a sociology and anthropology seminar to see how courses relate to different fields
- Discuss potential majors that align with Stacey's interests (e.g. Peace and conflict studies, social work, human rights advocacy)
- Recommend enrolling in a minor in a non-academic field (e.g. English or Latinx studies) to delay major decision
