SUMMARY

Mark is struggling with the balance between academic coursework and artistic growth, and is not sure what his next steps should be in his arts education major.

KEY CONCERNS

- Uncertainty about career pathway options in arts education and the heavy load of coursework in the humanities
- Struggle with integrating artistic and academic skills through advanced coursework
- Feeling overwhelmed by the amount of work and is not sure how to move forward
- Interest in art education and career pathways but needs guidance on which programs to consider

ACTION PLAN

- Help Mark understand the potential career paths in arts education, such as teaching, curating, or arts management
- Discuss the mix of humanities and arts courses in Mark's major and the importance of integrating artistic and academic skills
- Recommend meeting with art education and career center representatives to explore graduate school or internship opportunities
- Encourage Mark to create a personalized academic plan that balances his artistic vision with academic goals

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Schedule a follow-up meeting in 2 weeks to review progress and next steps
- Evaluate if Mark should consider majoring in arts administration or arts education as a dual-degree student
- Recommend applying for graduate programs in art or arts administration in the next semester
