SUMMARY

Amanda is uncertain about using her political science major in a meaningful way and is questioning her engagement and values.

RECOMMENDATIONS

- Explain the range of possible career paths for political science majors, including activism, policy work, media, and nonprofit work
- Discuss how to align one's values with a potential career path, and provide resources for political work that aligns with personal values
- Provide guidance on how to build skills for impactful work without becoming activist or activist-y
- Connect Amanda to potential internships or job opportunities that align with her interests and values
