SUMMARY

Steven is struggling to stay in his English course, uncertain about his academic fit and worried about failing again.

KEY CONCERNS

- Academic performance in the required writing course last semester
- Attempting a creative writing course this semester without a strong foundation
- Uncertainty about the fit of the English major for a student with a background in English and history
- Feeling discouraged after a low grade in a required course

ACTION PLAN

- Refer Steven to the writing center for refreshing his writing skills or exploring alternative majors
- Suggest attending a writing workshop as a way to practice academic writing in a supportive environment
- Discuss the strengths and interests of the English major with Steven's advisor
- Encourage Steven to explore cross-disciplinary options that combine his interests in literature and history

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Schedule a check-in later this semester to monitor academic progress and assess whether to switch majors or re-align the coursework
- Offer to keep in touch with a study group or mentorship for students in the English major
- Recommend attending advising sessions for other students in the same situation
