SUMMARY

Brian is experiencing academic stress and questioning his ability to succeed in his math major.

KEY CONCERNS

- Repeating difficult math courses and dropping grades
- Lowering of academic standards in his major
- Feeling unprepared for the level of thinking and analysis required
- Difficulty engaging in course material outside of class

ACTION PLAN

- Refer to tutoring center if grades continue to drop
- Encourage attendance at advanced math and statistics classes
- Provide guidance on how to read and analyze complex material in his major
- Recommend attending tutoring sessions or writing center if needed

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Check grades once this semester ends and report on progress
- Coordinate with tutoring office to schedule tutoring sessions
- Encourage writing or tutoring feedback on academic goals
- Recommend attending a career workshop on graduate school options in the future
