SUMMARY

Mary is uncertain about her graduate school or career path after a strong academic experience in sociology and anthropology, but is worried about transferring without a clear plan.

KEY CONCERNS

- Desire to pursue graduate studies in social work, social policy, or social justice
- Interest in social justice and community organizing, but lacking a clear understanding of career options
- Uncertainty about transferring to a different major without a clear pathway

ACTION PLAN

- Recommend exploring volunteer and internship opportunities in social justice and community organizing, including nonprofits and grassroots organizations
- Provide referral to career services for advice on graduate school or nonprofit job opportunities
- Suggest attending career fairs and connecting with social justice organizations and alumni networks

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Set up a follow-up meeting to review career options and plan for graduate school or nonprofit job
- Offer to connect Mary with career advisors and alumni for referral letters or internship recommendations
- Encourage Mary to consider a hybrid graduate program that combines social justice and academic skills
