SUMMARY

Student is struggling with academic performance in art studies, feeling lost and overwhelmed.

KEY CONCERNS

- Facing difficult coursework in art history, criticism, and studio courses
- Feeling disconnected from the content and style of the major
- Feeling uncertain if he's even a good fit for the arts major
- Need for support in recalibrating coursework and direction

ACTION PLAN

- Schedule a meeting to review coursework and assessment progress
- Discuss potential majors that align better with Keith's interests (e.g., writing, design, film)
- Recommend exploration of non-arts major options (e.g., English, history, business)
- Encourage reflection on identity and artistic vision through artwork

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- After meeting, check on academic progress and whether artwork is still a part of life
- Encourage journaling or sketching as a way to reflect on art and identity
- Discuss potential career paths that don't rely on the arts major, including writing, nonprofit, or tech
