SUMMARY

Jonathan is uncertain about his career path and is considering transferring or exploring alternative paths.

ISSUES

- ['Uncertainty about graduate school or career path in East Asian studies', 'Interesting but not fully formed', 'Feeling overwhelmed by options and uncertain future', 'Wanting advice on whether to stay or transfer in major', 'Lack of clarity about what to do next']
- ['Review of graduate programs and job opportunities in the field', 'Explored but not fully committed', 'Considering transfer but not sure why', 'Exploring alternative career paths, but not sure what's possible', 'Need to clarify what skills and experiences are in demand in the industry']

ACTION PLAN

- Schedule graduation visit with career center to get a sense of job opportunities in the field
- Refer to alumni in the department who have transitioned from academic to nonprofit or corporate roles
- Recommend attending career fairs in the spring and discussing potential graduate or non-degree options
- Encourage exploration of alternative career paths, such as teaching or community organizing in the arts or social justice contexts

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Offer follow-up meetings in January or February after graduation
- Refer to writing or reflection workshop if interested in publishing or speaking about academic work
- Encourage journaling and reflection on career goals and interests
