SUMMARY

Rebecca is uncertain about her career path and is considering graduate school or transfer.

KEY CONCERNS

- Enthusiasm for academic programs in East Asian languages and literature
- Uncertainty about what to do next after majoring
- Interest in graduate studies but lack of clarity
- Attempting to transfer to a different institution

ACTION PLAN

- Help Rebecca identify potential career paths in East Asian studies, such as teaching, library work, or government agencies
- Discuss the graduate school options for East Asian languages and literatures with a focus on teaching or research
- Explain the advantages and disadvantages of transferring to a different institution, including academic programs and resources
- Recommend strategies for identifying interests and developing a plan for graduate school or non-degree study

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Schedule a follow-up meeting after Rebecca has completed her major coursework and examines her career goals
- Help Rebecca brainstorm potential internships or research opportunities in East Asia or related fields
- Encourage Rebecca to reach out to alumni in the field for networking or internship referrals
