SUMMARY

Phillip is uncertain about his career path and the potential transfer from his sociology major to graduate studies in social work or policy.

KEY CONCERNS

- Uncertainty about whether to stay in academia or work in social justice after graduation
- Interest in social justice and community organizing, but still exploring academic and professional options
- Difficulty determining if graduate school or policy work is the right fit for her unique background

ACTION PLAN

- Refer Phillip to a career counseling session to help him identify career paths that align with her academic and social justice interests
- Suggest attending a graduate school fair or meeting with a social justice or community organizing organization to explore potential internships or job opportunities
- Discuss potential internships or community organizing projects in Phillip's major and social justice-related courses
- Encourage Phillip to apply for graduate programs in social work or social policy, but also emphasize the variety of academic and community-focused opportunities available in her field
