SUMMARY

Brandon is uncertain about the right path forward, considering graduate school and the job market for social work and community organizing graduates.

KEY CONCERNS

- Struggling to decide if graduate school is the right fit right now
- Uncertainty about the job market for graduates with social work and anthropology degrees
- Worries about the skills and experience needed for social work or community organizing
- Intrigue about career paths outside of academia

ACTION PLAN

- Encourage Brandon to attend career fairs focused on social work and community engagement, including graduate schools
- Discuss the potential skills and experience needed for different career paths in social work and nonprofit management
- Refer Brandon to UC Berkeley's Graduate School of Education and Career Services for career counseling and graduate school advice
- Connect Brandon to alumni in social work and community organizing who have transitioned into nonprofit management or policy work
