SUMMARY

Amanda is struggling with academic integrity in the social studies major, worried about grades and engagement with her professors.

KEY CONCERNS

- Finding it harder than expected to understand and apply social studies concepts
- Declining grades in major courses
- Feeling discouraged and uncertain about academic integrity
- Worries about engaging with professors or falling behind in the major

ACTION PLAN

- Encourage academic honesty practices in social studies classes
- Refer to tutoring service if grades plateau
- Explore alternative course structures that integrate social studies and other disciplines
- Reach out to academic advisors for the Educational Studies program for guidance

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Schedule a check-in next semester to assess academic progress
- Request a course review if grades improve
- Discuss how to best engage with the Educational Studies major with an academic advisor
