SUMMARY

Colin is struggling to balance his academic performance in English with his overall degree progress, leading to anxiety and uncertainty.

KEY CONCERNS

- Taking various English-related courses without a clear academic direction
- Satisfaction with progressing in the major despite lack of grades
- Feeling overwhelmed and worried about graduation timeline
- Lack of guidance on what type of major is right for him

ACTION PLAN

- Recommend meeting with academic advisor to review grading policy and major requirements
- Discuss which courses in English are relevant to Colin's interests and goals
- Provide feedback on writing skills and provide sample papers for genre study
- Recommend exploring a different major (e.g., history, creative writing) if academic performance improves

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Schedule follow-up meeting after grading period to assess progress
- Evaluate academic performance in spring semester to determine if adjustments were necessary
- Encourage self-reflection and goal setting for future courses
