SUMMARY

Natasha is struggling with writing and presentation skills in her major, which is noteworthy given her enthusiasm for the coursework.

KEY CONCERNS

- Facing significant academic challenges due to poor writing and presentation skills
- Difficulty engaging with course material and applying what I'm learning to my own writing and presenting
- Need for support in developing stronger writing and presentation skills through individual tutoring or feedback sessions
- Lack of awareness of potential negative impacts of weak writing and presentation abilities

ACTION PLAN

- Help Natasha develop a strong writing and critical thinking skills through class discussions and assignments
- Introduce tutoring slots for Writing Studies majors for students with similar challenges
- Recommend strategies for presenting ideas effectively, including brainstorming techniques and storytelling
- Encourage self-reflection and critical feedback on writing and presentation skills through assignments and feedback

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Schedule a check-in session in mid-semester to assess writing and presentation progress
- Evaluate tutoring progress and offer support for a writing project or presentation assignment in the next update
- Encourage Natasha to join a writing group or peer tutoring community for support beyond the tutoring slots
