SUMMARY

Student is struggling with a difficult history course and is not performing well.

KEY CONCERNS

- Cumulative D-grade in history of Europe course
- Slowing down in semester last year
- Uncertainty about ability to do course effectively
- Desire to improve academically

ACTION PLAN

- Recommend scheduling a graded assignment for next semester
- Review history of how the grading system works in history courses
- Encourage self-monitoring and reflecting on performance
- Offer support for writing and revision strategies (e.g., outlining, reorganizing, summarizing)

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- After meeting, check grading history and identify areas for improvement
- Discuss potential coursework options (e.g., re-enrolling, switching to a different history course)
- Encourage exploring graduate-level options if academically feasible
