SUMMARY

Academic stress and lack of support among theater major students are prevalent, and first-years are particularly vulnerable.

KEY CONCERNS

- Struggling with academic performance in the theater major
- Uncertainty about fit in the theater program and potential for failure
- Feeling disconnected from the theater club and performance arts community
- Lack of organization, collaboration, and career pathways discussed in classes

ACTION PLAN

- Recommend scheduling a semester-long theater seminar to practice performance and creative writing
- Introduce arts integration coach as a new major option for students
- Connect with the theater and performance clubs and provide support for academic projects
- Recommend attending workshops on career development in the arts, including acting and directing
