SUMMARY

Courtney is struggling with the economics coursework she took last semester and is not yet ready to major in the discipline.

KEY CONCERNS

- Regression and macroeconomic concepts are difficult for her
- Lack of engagement and difficulty understanding material
- Uncertainty about whether she's ready for an economics major

ACTION PLAN

- Refer Courtney to economics tutoring sessions
- Suggest attending a course on macroeconomics for non-majors
- Discuss how to better engage with economics concepts in a more accessible way
- Encourage Courtney to explore other majors that don't require an economics major

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Check in later this semester after taking more economics courses
- Offer to keep an eye on academic performance and provide feedback
- Encourage Courtney to apply what she's learned to non-economic interests or future career paths
