SUMMARY

Tiffany is experiencing difficulty understanding biology coursework and its relevance to her future, leading to a subpar academic performance.

KEY CONCERNS

- Learning heavily in biology but not well-understood concepts
- Feeling overwhelmed by grading and academic expectations
- Need for academic support, especially in biology
- Desire for guidance on improving academic performance in biology

ACTION PLAN

- Explain grading system and how biology relates to real-world applications
- Introduce academic coaching services for biology students
- Provide examples of how biology concepts can be applied in different fields
- Discuss how to improve academic performance by breaking down complex concepts
- Recommend attendance at biology tutoring services or study groups

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Schedule a check-in later this semester to monitor academic progress
- Offer to meet once a week for academic coaching for the rest of the semester
- Encourage Tiffany to join a biology tutoring group if she feels overwhelmed
- Recommend attending a biology-focused event or class for self-checking
