SUMMARY

Jean is struggling with academic integration and uncertainty about her future after a difficult semester majoring in Psychology and Neuroscience.

KEY CONCERNS

- Low GPA in major course, including Psych 300 and 500
- Decision stress from major change and unclear major
- Feeling overwhelmed by course load and not sure what to major in
- Difficulty connecting with professors and seeking out support

ACTION PLAN

- Help Jean reevaluate which major is right for her (psych or neuroscience, business, etc.)
- Connect Jean with academic advising to help with course selection and workload
- Refer Jean to mental health resources for adjustment disorder and stress management
- Offer support for transferring to a different major if academic path is uncertain

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Check on Jean's progress after reevaluation and advising visit
- Evaluate if academic counseling should continue or transition to career counseling
- Discuss possible internship or research opportunities in the future
