SUMMARY

Brad is struggling to balance his art major with academic expectations and is unsure of his current course load and future options.

KEY CONCERNS

- Taking more arts-related courses and feeling overwhelmed
- Not sure which art-related majors are a good fit for him
- Uncertainty about major and transferability with current course load
- Referring to cross-departmental meetings as a last resort

ACTION PLAN

- Refer Brad to art and interdisciplinary studies center for advising on course selection and academic pathways
- Suggest meeting with art faculty about combining courses with academic advising
- Encourage Brad to consider a different major or a more interdisciplinary approach to his studies
- Help Brad identify potential transfer opportunities in art or arts-related fields

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Schedule a follow-up meeting in a few weeks to check on academic progress and future plans
- Monitor academic performance and discuss next steps with advisors
- Recommend continued engagement with the arts major but emphasize the need for academic balance and career readiness
