SUMMARY

Patrick is a second-year Sociology major interested in career path, transfer options, and career-related questions but needs guidance on major and major transfer options.

KEY CONCERNS

- Enthusiasm for sociology and anthropology courses
- Interest in criminal justice and health fields
- Uncertainty about career paths in social sciences
- Need for career-related discussion about major and transfer options

ACTION PLAN

- Discuss potential career options (criminal justice, health, social work, policy, etc.)
- Suggest attending career fairs for social sciences and criminal justice majors
- Provide overview of sociology and social work majors in the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences
- Explain differences between sociology and criminal justice majors in terms of coursework and career options

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Set up follow-up meeting to discuss which major (Sociology, Anthropology, Criminal Justice, Social Work) would be best for personal interests and career goals
- Recommend taking at least one more sociology or anthropology course before declaring a major
- Encourage exploring transferable majors in the future if interest wanes
