SUMMARY

Katrina is uncertain about her career path after graduation and is worried about making a significant decision without guidance.

KEY CONCERNS

- Interest in graduate school as a possible career path
- Uncertainty about which graduate program or industry would be best fit
- Desire to explore different career paths without a clear plan
- Feeling uncertain about her current major and potential transfer

ACTION PLAN

- Schedule a career counseling session to help Katrina evaluate potential career paths in fields such as education, nonprofit, publishing, or policy
- Recommend attending a graduate information session for Romance Languages and Literature majors
- Discuss the literary and nonprofit industries as potential career paths with Katrina's academic advisor
- Encourage exploring non-academic career paths such as writing or social impact consulting

FOLLOW UP PLAN

- Schedule a follow-up meeting after career counseling session to review career options and potential paths
- Encourage Katrina to start researching nonprofit or social impact jobs in the coming weeks
- Recommend attending a networking event for graduate students in the Romance Languages field in the fall
